

AUDREY SCHNEIDERMAN

Calm In The Storm

Family Lawyer Audrey Schneiderman Of Feldman & Schneiderman, P.L. Expertly Guides Clients Through Tough Times

SOMETIMES YOU JUST KNOW THINGS intuitively, and that's how it is when you meet Audrey Schneiderman. You know she's special.

She's funny and smart. Direct, yet approachable. And that's why clients at Feldman & Schneiderman, P.L., appreciate her style in the handling of their family law matters.

"I have a very good rapport with my clients," says Schneiderman. "They like me.

But I also have control, and that's important. Not everyone has both."

A native New Yorker, Schneiderman attended University of Wisconsin, where she graduated cum laude, and earned her Juris Doctorate with honors from Rutgers School of Law, Camden, N.J.

Initially a successful corporate and tax attorney in New Jersey, Schneiderman found her real love when she moved to Florida about 25 years ago: Family law.

And even though she helps clients navi-

"I have a very good rapport with my clients. They like me. But I also have control, and that's important. Not everyone has both."

gate some of their darkest moments—death, divorce, custody disputes—Schneiderman's knowledge of the law, combined with her love for people, makes her one of South Florida's most successful family law attorneys.

Admitted to the Florida Bar in 1992, she is also licensed to practice before the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Florida, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit, and the U.S. Supreme Court. For 12 years, she's practiced with Joel H. Feldman at Feldman & Schneiderman and developed a real partnership.

She believes their partnership is the firm's crowning glory. "We're real partners," she says, "Down here, that's very unusual."

Schneiderman's quick wit, strong will and reverence for what is right and wrong also makes her one of the best mediating attorneys around.

She's a great hand-holder who has a knack for knowing when cooler heads should prevail.

She's also tough as nails.

"I'm not perfect," she says, smiling. "But at the same time, I have a respect for the law, and I try to fit each one of my clients into a situation best suited for them. People accept this, appreciate it, and it works."
